Find out what CLEAR CREEK BAPTIST BIBLE COLLEGE would do with a million dollars!

Clear Creek Baptist Bible College Capital Campaign

“What would you do with a million dollars?”

The most common response is, “Just give me a million dollars and see what I do!”

At Clear Creek Baptist Bible College, the answer is specific. Part of our answer would be to completely renovate Mahon Hall, including an apartment in honor of Glenda H. Tichenor.
One great need at Clear Creek is to completely renovate Mahon Hall so our faculty and staff do not have to live in sub-standard housing. Cost - $202,000.00

- Mahon Hall houses faculty and staff. Mahon Hall is nearing the point of becoming uninhabitable. We can bring it back to life. One apartment will be named in honor of Glenda H. Tichenor and the mark she left at Clear Creek.
- Total Mahon Hall Renovation costs will be $202,000.00.
- The Glenda H. Tichenor Apartment can be accomplished at a cost of $50,500.00.
  - 1 Kitchen at $14,000.00
  - 1 Full Bath at $6,000.00
  - 1 Living Room at $5,500.00
  - 1 Dining Room at $5,500.00
  - 2 Bedrooms at $5,500.00 each
  - 1 Half Bath at $4,500.00
  - 1 double Stairway and Foyer at $4,000.00 per apartment.
  - Any donor giving $1,000 or more will be listed on the plaque.

Help make the Glenda H. Tichenor Apartment in Mahon Hall a reality.

Glenda Tichenor taught at Clear Creek from 1998 – 2003. The Glenda H. Tichenor Apartment will have a plaque dedicated to her memory, including names of people or groups who gave $1,000.00 or more to make it happen. What will YOU do?
